15TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

In our readings for this week, our God injects a note of accountability into our commissioning to be leaven community and effecting a change for the better in the world's appreciation of its God.

God's Word is all powerful. It ever accomplishes that for which it is uttered. And in God's dealings with us as human beings, that same charge is operative.

God has commissioned us by our presence to effect a change in the World's awareness of God and for God's Word to accomplish this – our own leavening of the world by our lives will offering must ever be happening.

God's Word IS all powerful. God is the Sower. The seed – the word of God – is ever effective. The problematic element is the soil – the soil that is my heart.

How receptive am I to:

- Hearing God's Word?
- Allowing it to change my life?
- By my presence allowing others to experience the love of God first hand.

Questions:

*What one thing, changed, would make me a better person?
How has God spoken to me thru others?
How much attention have I given God today?*

Mission Statement: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because God has anointed me to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives, recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Luke: 4:18 - 19
