R.C.I.A. NEEDS YOU PERSONALLY

Many new members of the Catholic Community tell us that they waited for years before someone invited them personally to consider being part of our faith community.

Is one of your friends part of that number? Extend an invite!

17TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Our readings this week are very appropriate as we gather to give input on the best way to maximize the class act ministries of our four parishes better to be a Catholic Presence on the near west side of Cleveland.

Solomon is commended by God for praying for an understanding heart better to serve God’s people. We echo that prayer and the blessing it brings to us all.

Paul reminds the people of Rome that for those who love God, all things work out for the good. We ask God’s help in keeping this in mind as we continue to reflect on the challenges that face us.

And the Jesus of Matthew’s Gospel illustrates the need for a total commitment which is unconditional to serve God by citing the parables of the Treasure hidden in the field, the merchant finding a pearl of great price, and The net which enables good and evil to co-exist till the end of the world.

An understanding heart, a faith that all will work out well for those who love God., and the gift to our God of a TOTAL COMMITMENT – these things will enable us to march into the future hand in hand with our God.
