ZING ALONG A MERRY ZONG

- The phone never rings till you dial another number.

-Lost tools will be found right after you buy a replacement.

- Anyone who is popular is sure to be disliked

- A show off is any child more gifted than yours.

- There si always more dirty
laundry than clean laundry.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER

9TH

27TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The readings for this week are for the good people – not bad people.

What God says to us as good people Is that we have to be more aware of the role to which we are called.

We are not to be “Like others” but so to live that others will see the wisdom of being “Like us” – people who walk thru a passing world with hearts set on a world that will never end.

Down thru the course of the history of God's people – all through the Old Testament, God kept reminding His people of the need for awareness of their chosen role too be part of God's saving plan for all nations.

What was true then is true of us today. We are not bad people. We are good people who often forget.

We ask the Lord this week to keep us Aware of the privilege, the challenge and the trust that is given us to be instruments of God's peace.

This past week we celebrated the Feast of St. Francis. Perhaps his prayer best says it:
Help me not so much to seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love for it is in giving that we receive, pardoning that we are pardoned and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

For this we pray this week.

Mission Statement: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because God has anointed me to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives, recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Luke: 4:18 - 19
