PEACE PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred let me sow love. Where there is injury pardon. Where there is doubt – faith. Where there is despair – hope. Where there is darkness – light. Where there is sadness – joy.
O Divine Master grant that I may seek Not so much to be consoled as to console. To be understood as to understand. To be loved as to love. To be pardoned as to pardon.
For it is in giving that we receive, pardoning that we are pardoned, and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

PALM SUNDAY – 2010

Palm Sunday ushers in the Solemn celebration of the Holiest Mystery of our faith. That the God of the Universe become one of us is incredible. That the God of the Universe give the ultimate sacrifice of self for us defies our finite comprehension.

The response of people to these profound mysteries will ever be less than adequate.

But the symbolism of Palm Sunday is a reminder of the response of all of us to this profound gift of self.

On Palm Sunday, the people of God responded to the coming of Jesus into Jerusalem with shouts of joy, strewn his way with Palm Branches.

But the same people of God within but a few short days were shouting "Crucify Him.."

But how can any of us judge another person. We too say "Crucify Him" today as people of God in trivializing the most sacred of mysteries.

If we celebrate the blessings given us by our families in anniversaries and birthdays, should we not crowd our churches with being present for the celebration of the events that gave us a life that is eternal of joy with our God?

Just a thought !

Mission Statement: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because God has anointed me to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives, recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Luke: 4:18 - 19
