PEACE PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred let me sow love. Where there is injury pardon. Where there is doubt – faith. Where there is despair – hope. Where there is darkness – light. Where there is sadness – joy. O Divine Master grant that I may seek Not so much to be consoled as to console. To be understood as to love. To be pardoned as to pardon. For it is in giving that we receive, pardoning that we are pardoned, and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

CONGRATULATIONS TO 2010 COMMUNION CLASS

5th SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Gospel this Sunday with its sharing with us of the NEW COMMANDMENT of Jesus is one that needs reflection.

The Great Commandment is Love God above all things and Neighbor as self.

But the newness of Christ's commandment consists in its demanding more of us.

Jesus loved humanity to the point of becoming one of us, remaining faithful to his commitment to love us unconditionally and eventually giving life itself for us.

The power of Christ's Gospel is in His "speaking" it in deeds not words. So doing,, Jesus deeds were more eloquent than His words.

We live in a communication saturated world. Words are not in any way as powerful a call to action as are deeds.

The call to be God like – to continue the presence of Jesus in our world is one to exemplifying in our own lives the unconditional love Jesus had for each and all of us.

We receive Christ in order to become as unconditional is our love for others as He has ever been.

Can I do it? Will I do it? WHEN!?
