PEACE PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred let me sow love. Where there is injury pardon. Where there is doubt – faith. Where there is despair – hope. Where there is darkness – light. Where there is sadness – joy.
O Divine Master grant that I may seek Not so much to be consoled as to console. To be understood as to understand. To be loved as to love. To be pardoned as to pardon.
For it is in giving that we receive,
pardoning that we are pardoned, and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

WELCOME TO ANY VISITING

You honor us with your presence.
Please come again. Welcome.

13TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Our readings are challenging.
Elisha's commitment on hearing the words of Elijah was total and firm. From that day forward, each day his commitment was renewed and lived.

What is the history of my baptism commitment? Is it: Total? Renewed daily? More meaningful each day?

Paul speaks of the Law calling for love as neighbor as self. However, Jesus said: "Love one another as I have loved you?" totally, joyfully, unconditionally, sincerely?
Where am I in making this love of Jesus real in my relationships with Others?

Further promoting the totality of one's commitment to our God are the words of Jesus to us as ones who follow:

1. Birds have nests foxes dens.
Son of man has no where to lay his head. Can I commit to following whatever is asked of me?
2. I will follow but let me bury my Dad first? Commitment it total – top priority. What kind of priority has my commitment?
3. I will follow but let me say goodbye to those at home first.
No one putting hand to the plow and looking back. Is worthy of the kingdom.

What in my life is making my allegiance to God a less than total priority at the present time?

Commit totally.
Renew it each day. Prioritize it top shelf. Mean it. AMEN.

Mission Statement: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because God has anointed me to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives, recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Luke: 4:18 - 19
